School Mission and Goals

We share a fundamental belief that the mission of our school is to embrace the diversity of our community and create an educational future for all of our children. We will develop learners who can access and use information, effectively communicate through reading, writing, and speaking; perform mathematics, the arts, the sciences, and technology; promote an active, healthy lifestyle, make responsible decisions and adapt to the challenges of the future.

Lowell School has been fortunate in maintaining a safe and secure campus. In order to maintain the environment we have during these changing times, we have secured a school resource officer for the next three years. The officer and school will work together to develop a plan to ensure that the community is safe.
